

UNLOCKING YOUR POTENTIAL AT REGIS UNIVERSITY

Nestled in Denver with the unmatched backdrop of the Rocky Mountains, Regis University – Colorado's only Jesuit Catholic institution – serves students of all faiths in its mission to build a better citizenry by emphasizing the values of empathy, critical thinking and standing up for those unheard and underrepresented.

Regis has been educating at the frontiers of faith, reason and culture since 1877. In fact, we were one of the first universities in Colorado to offer a remote learning option. Today, we continue to blaze new trails by providing working professionals with the flexible academic programs they need to lead further.

Read on to discover how you can unlock your fullest potential with a degree from Regis.

ASPIRE TO MORE AT REGIS WITH: A COMMUNITY YOU CAN COUNT ON

Defined by our commitment to building a more just and humane world through transformative education; personal support from faculty and mentors; and acceptance into a community of diverse, yet like-minded leaders who value empathy, social justice and personal growth – your Regis University experience will be unlike any other.

We offer a full suite of services to all our students so your time here can be healthy, productive and rewarding. These include:

The Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusive Excellence

As a core Jesuit value, we firmly believe inclusion is the work of every member of the Regis community. As such, we actively seek ways to collaborate with and support Regis students, faculty and staff in our shared goal of cultivating and maintaining an atmosphere that celebrates our diverse backgrounds, beliefs and perspectives.

Center for Career and Professional Development

Your success is our business. At the Center for Career and Professional Development, you can brush up on your interview skills, polish your resume, plan your next career switch and so much more. The best part? These services are available to all Regis University alumni indefinitely.

Service Opportunities

Logging more than 60,000 hours of service and community engagement each academic year, these hands-on experiences across hundreds of service programs, volunteer projects and community outreach events are critical in shaping our students into the leaders they desire to be.

50+ FLEXIBLE DEGREE PROGRAMS TO FIT YOUR LIFE AND INTERESTS

From health care and education to computer science and liberal arts, whatever your interests, Regis has a program to help you meet your goals and make an impact.

Students can choose from over 50 academic programs, including certificates and bachelor's degrees, many of which can be completed online as well as on campus at our spectacular Front Range locations.

As leaders in online learning for professionals in Colorado and beyond, we continue to accommodate students by offering three convenient enrollment start dates in fall, spring and summer. Certain online and hybrid programs support up to six start dates with accessible eight-week terms.

For those with existing credits or professional experience, we offer a generous transfer policy. Admissions counselors are standing by to review your transcripts and answer any questions you may have. Call 800.658.5684 or email us at help@achieve.regis.edu.

A WINNING STRATEGY FOR STUDENT SUCCESS

Thanks to a 12:1 student-to-faculty ratio, our students enjoy individualized attention and a tailored curriculum, as well as close, personalized support from faculty.

Additionally, most of our programs require a service-learning project of some kind. These projects get our students out into their communities, provide invaluable real-world experience and strengthen the application of their classroom instruction.

These career-specific experiences provide the hands-on learning students need to position themselves as a top candidate in their field. The results are clear. Consistently ranked as a top college in Colorado, Regis is #1 for Nursing, #2 for Best Value and #2 for Best Online College according to niche.com.

But that's just the beginning. With a network of more than 80,000 alumni recognized the world over for their academic excellence and contribution to the greater good, an education from Regis University can lead you literally anywhere. Learn more about all our student outcomes, and discover where you can go with a degree from Regis University.
